New Moon (Holy Time)	Vernal Equinox	Annual Sabbath Day
----------------------	----------------	--------------------

Holy Time	Weekly Sabbath Day	Passover day; not a Sabbath day
-----------	--------------------	---------------------------------

Heart preparation for Passover begins--this is the 10th day of the first month, the time when the lamb was taken from the fold and separated for the ceremony. Similarly, we must be separated unto YHWH for His reasonable service.

Notice: Cherry blossoms will be late in Washington DC;

Caution: 1) All observances offset in deep blue, called Sabbaths or holy days are celebrated from the previous evening to the next evening. For example, the first day of Unleavened Bread is April 16th and is observed from Friday evening at sunset to Saturday evening at sunset--Same time as the weekly Sabbath.

2) Not all "holy times" are Sabbath days. For example, The feast of Tabernacles extends from Sunday, October 9th thru Sunday October 16th. Only the first and last days are Sabbaths, along with Saturday the 15th. All other days are holy times, but one may perform gainful labor and execute business contracts on the intervening days (10th thru 14th), without being held accountable unto YHWH. We highly recommend taking this time off, however, and convoking in holy assembly with the saints. It is these times that our God especially teaches us into the wisdom of His great Plan of Salvation!
